

God says:
You will be my people and I will be your God.
I will always love
you,
You are precious
to me....
Once again you
will dance for joy.

Jeremiah 31: 3-4

It has been a hard year for many people. Today we celebrate the promise of God that God is at work bring light and joy to the world.

Who do you know that has had a hard year? Send them a card this week.

How do you know that God loves you? What does it feel like?
How have you experienced it?

Youth Group resumes tonight January 2, from 4:30-6:30 with a movie night. CU Wednesday activities (bells, music, confirmation, Club 6-7 and stay and play) resume January 6!

The Epiphany of Our Lord (Gospel Reading: Matthew 2:1-12)

We are in the season of Christmas, a time to celebrate the birth of Christ and the ways he is at work in our lives. The Christmas season lasts from December 25 (Christmas Day) to January 6 (Epiphany.) The Christ candle burns.
