

There is no youth group tonight. We are hosting a movie night for our community at 5:00pm, "They Know Not what they Do." This documentary looks at four faith-based families with LGBTQ children caught in the crosshairs of sexuality, identity, and scripture. It contains violence and hate speech and is recommended for middle school and up. We encourage families to watch it together.

Today is a special day in the life of our church where we remember people who have died. It is called "All Saint's Sunday"

In religious belief, a saint is a person who is recognized as having an exceptional degree of holiness, likeness, or closeness to God.

United Methodists believe in saints, but not in the same manner as the Catholic Church.

We recognize Matthew, Paul, John, Luke and other early followers of Jesus as saints, and countless numbers of United Methodist churches are named after these saints.

All Saints' Day is a time to remember Christians of every time and place, honoring those who lived faithfully and shared their faith with us. On All Saints' Day, many churches read the names of their members who died in the past year.

You may have someone you love who has died. What do you remember about them?
