Who are some of your favorite Biblical women?

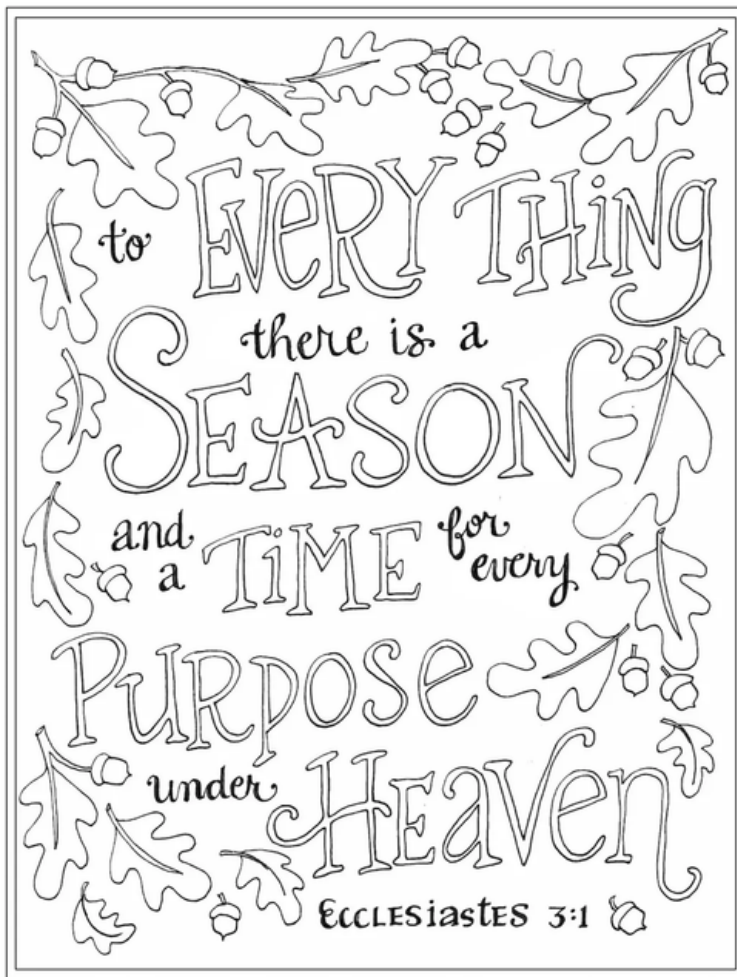

UNITED WOMEN IN FAITH

Our worship service today is put together by a group in our church called United Women in Faith. You will hear more about their ministry during the worship service.

Our children and youth have LOTS of questions about women in the Bible. Many kids notice early on that the Bible tells more stories about men than it does about women. They many ask about gender roles in the Bible. And why does it say he and him about God?

These are great questions that open up all kinds of teaching and learning opportunities. The ways we respond to questions will depend on the child-- and they will often revisit these questions as they grow in faith.
